North to water, this exceptional single level residence offers the ideal location, layout and design for any family. This beautifully presented, freshly styled and low maintenance home overlooks the sparkling swimming pool and flows onto the waterway and sandy beach. Set on over a quarter of an acre in a whisper-quiet cul de sac, entertainers will delight in the kitchen and family area which opens directly onto the expansive deck. Multiple living and entertaining zones make this an ideal home for all members of the family.

Boasting an ideal aspect, the bright and airy interiors include generous living and accommodation spaces and the gourmet kitchen features an island bench with stone tops, European appliances with gas cooking plus a waterside study area – perfect for after school homework.
